The Dean

We are all in need of resurrection, as individuals, as a college community, as a nation. This Easter term, our visiting speakers reflect on themes of resurrection, drawing especially on the accounts of the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the New Testament. The Christian conviction is that Christ is the 'first-fruits' of new life: in rising from the dead, he inaugurates a new creation, in which we can share. Our preachers this term bring with them a diverse range of backgrounds and experiences, but they are united in having been formed by time at Clare College. They will help us consider how resurrection is not an abstract idea, but something lived out practically and concretely in our college community.

Matthew Fell is a postgraduate student at Clare, currently completing a doctorate in the Faculty of Divinity. His thesis offers a theological engagement with contemporary questions regarding human evolution and the emergence of mind. Hannah Fytche came up to Clare in 2015 to read Theology, and was awarded the Greene Medal (pietatis causa) for her contributions to the academic and spiritual life of the College. She subsequently took the MPhil in Theology (as the C.F.D. Moule Scholar), and is now engaged in doctoral research at the Faculty of Divinity, focussing on New Testament ecclesiology. Kirsty Borthwick served as the Decani Scholar at Clare from 2018 to 2020, where she also studied for a doctorate in Trinitarian doctrine. She was ordained in St Albans Cathedral in June 2021, and is currently completing her curacy at All Saints' Church, Leighton Buzzard. Dr Michael Ward has been the Decani Scholar at Clare (2002), the Chaplain of Peterhouse, Cambridge, and the Chaplain of St Peter's College, Oxford, and is now a member of the Theology Faculty at Oxford University. Dr Ward is a leading authority on CS Lewis' literary corpus, and the author of Planet Narnia: The Seven Heavens in the Imagination of CS Lewis (OUP, 2008); he has also appeared in a James Bond film. Paul Swarup came up to Clare to read Oriental Studies in 1998, before studying for a PhD at Cambridge in the Old Testament and the Dead Sea Scrolls. Paul has published commentaries on Exodus, Proverbs, Jeremiah and Lamentations, and is an internationally-renowned Biblical scholar. He was consecrated as the Bishop of Delhi in October 2022. Julian Barker trained for the priesthood at Westcott House and served as Chaplain of Clare from 1966 to 1970. Following his time at Clare, Julian ministered in parishes in Norfolk and Derbyshire, before retiring in 2003.

Our sermons at Holy Communion in Easter Term continue our journey through Luke's Gospel, plus special readings to mark Whit Sunday on 19 May.

RECITALS

Each Sunday during full term there is a recital in Chapel at 5.25 p.m. before Evensong. Visitors are welcome, and admission is free. The recital is a preparation for the worship to follow, and those present are invited to reflect and meditate silently during the musical offering. There is no recital on 26 May as the Choir performs at the University Sermon that morning in Great St Mary's.

MUSIC

Musical highlights this Term include a liturgical performance of Frank Martin's Messe for double choir (9 June), premières of works by Clare undergraduates Simon Hall (28 April) and Eoin Jenkins (5 May), Handel's Coronation Anthem My heart is inditing with instruments (5 May), a pairing of works themed on David's loss of his son Absalom (8 May), Jonathan Harvey's Come, Holy Ghost for Pentecost (19 May), and William Walton's Festival Anthem The Twelve (2 June).

The Choir joins the Choir of Selwyn College for a Choral Eucharist in their Chapel (30 April), and performs for the University Sermon in Great St Mary's Church (26 May). We look forward to performing outdoors in Old Court on Ascension Day morning (9 May) and to welcoming back members of the Clare Choir Alumni Association for Evensong (11 May). The Choir gives a concert performance of Claudio Monteverdi's Vespers of 1610 at London's St John's, Smith Square (27 April), and a concert in the Church of Our Lady and the English Martyrs as part of the Cambridge Summer Music Festival (5 July).

Full details of all events are available from the Chapel Office, or at www.clarecollegechoir.com.

DEAN'S TUESDAY TEAS

Clare students are cordially invited to take a break from work and enjoy afternoon tea in the beautiful surroundings of the Fellows' Garden, with tea, fruit juice, and a range of delicious cakes. Running 2–3 p.m. on 7 May and 14 May. On the following Tuesday, 21 May, there will be a special tea for all Clare College staff at 11 a.m.

COMPLINE FOR REFUGEES

Our Compline Service on Wednesday 8 May will specially focus on the humanitarian crisis of forced migration in our world, and we will pray for all those fleeing the dangers of war, persecution, or climate disaster. The Choir will sing two pieces reflecting on David's loss of Absalom, set by Gombert and Eric Whitacre.

ANTHEM FOR ASCENSION DAY

Join us in Old Court at 8.45 a.m. on Thursday 9 May, to celebrate Ascension Day with a festal Anthem sung by the Choir.

UNIVERSITY SERMON

On Sunday 26 May, we will be joining the University service at Great St Mary's Church at 11.30 a.m., with the Choir singing at the service, and Clare alumnus Bishop Paul Swarup preaching. This replaces Evensong in Chapel on this Sunday.

CHORAL EUCHARIST

To mark the last Sunday of term, Choral Evensong on 9 June is replaced by a festal Choral Eucharist at 6 p.m. in Chapel, followed by drinks.

OPEN CHAPEL

Throughout the term, Chapel will be open for quiet reflection, relaxation and stillness every weekday evening until 10 p.m.

COLLECTIONS

Chapel Collections at Sunday services in Easter Term are in aid of Cambridge Women's Aid, a local charity providing dedicated and specialist services, since 1977, to women and children affected by domestic abuse. You can find out more information on their website here: cambridgewa.org.uk.

COVER IMAGE

The cover image depicts the Ascension of Christ, and is a late medieval painting on wood from the Hohenfurth Abbey in Germany. It depicts Mary and the apostles, with Jesus in the process of vanishing into the cloud (Acts 1: 9). It puts us in mind of Cranmer's exhortation from the Prayer Book Collect for Ascension Day: 'like as we do believe thy only-Begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ to have ascended into the heavens; so we may also in heart and mind thither ascend, and with him continually dwell'.

A celebratory programme of doubles: choral pairings of sacred texts from Byrd and Monte to Bingham and Marsh, and the 20th-century masterpiece that is the Mass for double choir by Swiss composer Frank Martin. The programme also celebrates the centenary of the death of Charles Villiers Stanford, one of the most significant composers for the Anglican church, with his ecstatic double-choir setting of the Magnificat, and his much-loved anthems The Blue Bird and For lo, I raise up – accompanied on the very organ that was built to a specification by Stanford himself.

CHORAL SERVICES RESUME ON THURSDAY, 10 OCTOBER 2024 AT 6.15 P.M.
